LAMAR TELLS OF HIS IMPERSONATIONS

Narrative Witnout Parallel In History of Congressional Investigation

ASSUMES MANY NAMES

Witness Frankly Admits Using Names of Palmer, Riordan and Other Public Men

REFUSES TO GIVE REAL NAME

WASHINGTON, July 2.—A story of misrepresentation, impersonation of public men, and organized effort to influence Wall street financiers, probably without parallel in the history of congressional investigation was unfolded today before the senate lobby committee. A prosperous looking, self-possessed individual calling himself David Lamar, of New York, self-described as an "operator in stocks" and admittedly the bearer of several assumed names was the principal in the remarkable session. With entire abandon, arousing the committee to laughter at times by his naive admissions, he told of his impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall street operators and his association with Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer in efforts to have Lauterbach retained by the Morgan firfim, the Union Pacific and other great interests to head off congressional activity in Washington.

Assumes Many Guises.

He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Riordan. He assumed the guise of Chairman McCombs, of the Democratic national committee to telephone to Chairman Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee. Louis Cass Ledyard of New York, counsel for the Morgan firm was one of his attempted victims. Mr. Ledyard came to the witness stand today armed with almost a verbatim account of all the conversations held with Lamar who had represented himself as Congressman Palmer. As he read the record of the conversations in themselves unusual in their tone, Lamar, sitting nearby, laughed and nodded saying "that's right" and slapping his leg with apparent enjoyment.

The purpose of his impersonations, Lamar contended was to secure reinstatement for his friend Edward Lauterbach in the good graces of the Morgan firm.

Lauterbach Recalled.

Members of the committee tonight demanded that Lamar remain in Washington for re-appearance tomorrow. Edward Lauterbach who recently testified before the committee was recalled from New York by telegraph tonight and Henry B. Burton, a local an who has figured as head of the antitrust league was also subpoenaed to apper.

Lmar declared he prepared the resolution for the Stanley investigation for the steel trust, that it was given to Martin who gave it to Congressman Stanley subsequently, he said, it was introduced in the house of representatives by Mr. Stanley with but a few technical changes from its original form.

No Extortion of Money.

Lamar denied that there had been any attempt at extorting money from any of the New York financial men. The story evolved during the day mainly through the Ledyard testimony, indicated that the latter had been sent to various members of the Morgan firm to tell the of the "steel trust" investigation resolution which Laar had prepared, but that none of the Morgan firm members would pay any attention to the matter or ake any effort to stop it.

Laar paved the way for Lauterbach to call upon Ledyard, according to the testimony given by Led ing to the testimony given by Ledyyrd and corroborated by Lamar. In an interview Feb. 8th, 1913, between Mr. Ledyard and Lauterbach, the latter declared he came direct from Senator Stone who represented Speaker Clark, and that he had a proposal to make to the Morgan interests for the heading off congressional activity against the steel corporation.

Senator Stone took the stand before Ledyard had finished and denounced the whole thing as a malicious fabrication and a "common lie." Members of the senate committee agreed in the belief that it was a fabrication and Lamar laughingly clinched the matter by breaking in and admitting there was no truth in the allegations. He admitted that he had prepared the outline of the conditions that should be submitted to the steel corporation attorneys, but he could give no explanation of his purpose that the whole thing was a farce.

Traced Impersonator.

The story of how Ledyard had kept Lamar on the telephone time after time until he could locate the real Congressman Palmer in Washington; how he had once succeeded in getting Paler over the long distance phone when the bogus "Palmer" was on another phone and how he had finally traced the impersonator to a telephone in Lamar's apartments on Riverside Drive, held the committee and spectators almost dumbfounded for more than an hour.

Paul D. Cravath, one of the attorneys for the Union Pacific and Maxwell Everts counsel for the Southern Pacific testified briefly as to their experiences with the telephone impersonator. During his testimony early in the day Lamar interjected an attack upon the Union Pacific claiming there had been a falsification in the books of the company in 1901 by which nearly $80,000,000 had disappeared from its surplus. Mr. Cravath immediately after this, terming, Lamar a liar, a characterization which the committee insisted should be withdrawn, declared the attack had been expected for several days as a part of a bear raid to depress the value of the stock for speculative purposes.

While Lamar was on the stand Chairman Overman endeavored to make him give his real name but the witness refused. He admitted under Overman's questioning that he had been in Denver under the name of David H. Lewis, but denied he had used the name of Simon Wolfe. He said Lamar was not his name but declined to give the committee further information.

JESSIE W. WILSON TO WED PENNSYLVANIAN

WEDDING WILL TAKE PLACE NEXT NOVEMBER IN WHITE HOUSE

Engagement of President's Second Daughter to Francis Bowes Sayre of Lancaster, Pa., is Announced.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The President and Mrs. Wilson announced tonight the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, to Francis Bowes Sayre of Lancaster, Pa. The wedding is expected to take place next November at the white house. Mr. Sayre is at present an attorney in the office of District Attorney Whitman of New York. While close friends of the both families have known of the engagement for some time, announcement was withheld until today, the first anniversary of Mr. Wilson's nomination at the Baltimore convention. White house officials accompanied the brief announcement with a biography of Mr. Sayre. He is 28 years old, and after preparing at Hill school at Pottstown, Pa., and Lawrenceville, N. J., graduated from Williams college in 1909. He was manager of the football team there, valedictorian of his class and interested in Y. M. C. A. work. He spent two summers with Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell in his missionary work on the coast of Labrador and studied law at Harvard law school, where he graduated last year "cum laude."

He has travelled extensively during his vacations, spending last summer in Alaska and North Siberia.

Miss Wilson is 24 years old and was educated at Goucher college, Baltimore, and specialized in political science. She has done much settlement work in Philadelphia and has been actively identified with the Y. W. C. A., having recently made many speeches in its behalf.

While Mr. Sayre is not known to Washingtonians, he has made several quiet visits to the white house in recent months and was a frequent visitor at the Wilson home at Princeton, N. J. The announcement was received with keen interest in social circles of the national capitol as the wedding starts the winter season with an important social function. Not since Miss Alice Roosevelt and former Representative Longworth of Ohio were married has there been a wedding at the white house and many years prior to that occurred the wedding of the Clevelands.

MISSOURI PACIFIC TRAIN WRECKED NEAR BERGER, MO.

Engineer is Killed and Many Are Seriously Injured When Fast Train is Derailed.

St. Louis, Mo., July 2.—One man was killed, ten seriously injured and scores of others cut and bruised when Missouri Pacific train No. 1, bound from St. Louis to Kansas City was wrecked at Berger, Mo., 75 miles west of here today. The cause of the derailment is not definitely known.

All of the 175 passengers were badly shaken up and many suffered fracture and scalp wounds.

WILL NOT COMPLY WITH DECISION.

St. Paul, Minn., July 2.—The Chicago Great Western railway has refused to comply with the decision of the United States supreme court in the case involving the Great Northern and Northern Pacific and will not pay refunds on excess charges during the period of rate litigation. The amount involved is approximately $300,000. The announcement of the intention of the company was made today by S. G. Briggs, counsel for the company, who declared that it was the company's belief that inasmuch as the supreme court had termed the rates confiscatory with regard to the Minneapolis & St. Louis, the same could apply to the Chicago Great Western.

FINISH TRAINING.

Los Angeles, July 2.—Leach Cross and Bud Anderson finished training to day for their twenty round fight on July 4th.

Anderson rules a ten to seven favorite.

HAVE LITTLE HOPE OF AVERTING BALKAN WAR

BULGARS DEMAND CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES OF SERVIA AND GREECE

Greece Accuses Bulgaria of Treacherously Attacking Servians and Greeks to Take Possession of Important Territories.

LONDON, July 2.—Any remaining hope of averting a Balkan war is rapidly disappearing. Bulgaria has sent warning notes to Servia and Greece demanding a cessation of all aggressive movements within twenty-four hours. These notes are tantamount to an ultimatum.

A Belgrade despatch via Paris tonight announces that the king of Servia is presiding at a council which is expected to decide to declare war on Bulgaria.

Greece in notes to Bulgaria and the powers justifying her action, accuses Bulgaria of treacherously attacking the Greeks and Servians in order to seize important territories and so place herself in an advantageous position in the coming negotiations for a settlement of the Balkan differences. In the meantime fighting continues, according to Servian advices on a heavy scale and the king of Greece with his staff has left Saloniki for the front to direct the operations personally.

The representatives of the powers at all Balkan capitals are urgently pressing the respective governments not to allow unfortunate occurrences to drag them into war.

Report Enormous Losses.

Belgrade, July 2.—Army headquarters report that the Servians, after capturing Istip, pursued the enemy capturing over one hundred officers and one thousand men.

Press despatches say sanginuary fighting has occurred at Ovtchepolye where the Bulgarian losses were enormous and 4,000 Bulgarians surrendered. In this engagement, 2,000 Servians were killed and wounded.

According to the best information here the battle line extended from Kochana,, Istip and Strumitz towards Guevgheli and thence onwards to the Gulf of Opni.

The Bulgarians delivered their heaviest blows at Guevgheli, where they severed the Greco-Servian line and at Istip. They still hold Guevgheli, but were driven from Istip eventually with heavy losses towards Ovtchepolye where the Servian army was massed. The Servian supporting forces met the Bulgarians at Nermak and Petrishino, where a fierce fight ensued.

Caught Between Two Fres.

The Bulgarians suffered heavily. On the other side of Guevghelia the Greek army are concentrated and the Bulgarian troops being caught between two fires. Unconfirmed despatches tonight report further heavy fighting in the Istip district in which the Servians were compelled to abandon their fortified positions at the town of Istip and leave behind their wounded.

Fifty-four officers, including four colonels were among the killed while the losses on both sides numbered several thousand.

Although the war has now ragged for sixty hours the Bulgarian minister and his staff are still here. Telephonic communication between Belgrade and Sofia has ceased.

According to the latest advices from the front the Bulgarians have been entirely off the territory which they occupied when they took the Servians unawares. And the Bulgarian right wing has been completely routed. It is asserted that the fighting was the bloodiest in the history of the Balkan wars.

Recapture Guevgheli.

London, July 3.—A Belgrade despatch to the Daily Telegraph reports that the Greeks went to the assistance of the Servians and after heavy fighting, recaptured Guevgheli. The Bulgarians met with real disaster when in an attack on the Servian positions at Retkibukwe on the bank of Zletovo river they attempted desperate assaults with the bayonet. These failed and the Bulgarians left behind a thousand dead and wounded.

MRS. SARAH F. DAWSON DIES THIS MORNING.

Mrs. Sarah F. Dawson, aged 66 years, died this (Thursday) morning at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ida Clarkson, 1008 Edge Hill rad. Mrs. Dawson had not been well for several days but was taken suddenly ill at midnight, death ensuing two hours later. HITCHCOCK QUITS DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

Nebraska Senator Withdraws When His Amendment Is Voted Down

URGES TOBACCO TAX

Amendment Would Put Graduated IncomeTax on Tobacco Production

WILL MAKE FIGHT IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, July 2.—When Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska withdrew from the Democratic tariff caucus today because that body voted down his amendment that would put a graduated income tax on tobacco production, he precipitated the liveliest time the senate Democrats have had since they began consideration of the measure.

Senator Hitchcock's revolt, which he later declared did not mean that he had withdrawn from the party or that he would not support the party measure, served to determine that there would be a binding resolution passed by the caucus pledging the senators to support the bill as ratified to refrain from introducing any amendments not proposed by the finance committee majority and not to support any amendments offered fro the Republican side. It was because he anticipated such a resolution that the Nebraska senator announced that he could not remain in the caucus because he intended to introduce his tobacco tax amendment in the senate and to lead a fight there for its adoption. When, in the course of his talk to the caucus, the senator announced his decision and the reasons therefore, many of his colleagues who had supported him in the vote on his amendment pleaded with him to remain in the room. There was considerable excitement, as senator after senator urged Mr. Hitchcock not to go out, assuring him that he could be granted the privilege of bringing up his amendment without taking such a drastic course. Senator Hitchcock declared, however, that there was no other course open and left the room while the excitement was at its height.

Amendment Defeated 23 to 18.

The vote on the amendment was 23 to 18, the senators supporting it being Ashurst, Bacon, Clarke of Arkansas, Fletcher, Hitchcock, Hollis, Kern, Lea, Martine, Myers, Newlands, O'Gorman, Pomrene, Robinson, Saulzbury, Shepard, Shields and Vardaman. All the members of the finance committee voted against the amendment.

After the excitement had calmed down, statements were issued by Senators Simmons, chairma nof the finance committee, who opposed the amendment, and Kern, chairman of the caucus, who supported it. Senator Simmons said:

"The caucus declined to adopt the so-called Hitchcock amendment to the tariff bill principally because it did not consider it wise to attempt in a tariff measure to deal with the trust evil. It was felt that the trust should be dealth with as a separate one as soon as it could be reached and only after such thorough and mature consideration as the great importance of the subject required. Moreover such consideration could not give to it by the finance committee, the caucus, and the congress without unduly delaying final action upon the tariff bill and disappointing the public desire for its party sentiment." "The vote on Senator Hitchcock's amendment," Senator Kern said, "has no significance as indicating any sympathy with the tobacco trust or any other monopoly of any member of the conference. On the contrary there was a unanimous tendency against them.

"Nearly all who opposed the resolution based their action upon the theory that the bill should not be loaded down with general legislation and especially with legislation directed against one trust and affecting none of the others.

"All agreed that every Democratic platform pledge on the subject of trusts and monopolies should be faithfully carried out by legislation carefully drawn for that purpose."

Tonight the caucus adjourned until tomorrow afternoon when it will have before it the matter of extending the date for the sugar tariff to become effective.

Consider Odds and Ends.

A majority of the finance committee will meet in the morning to consider the child labor question, the time for making effective the wool schedule and some odds and ends of the bills. It was stated tonight that there now was a disposition in the committee to change the date of effectiveness for the wool schedule and the recommemndation of the committee of the caucus probably will be that the wool rates become effective immediately after the passage of the bill.

Modification of the amendment championed by Senators Hughes and Thomas to prohibit the entry of goods manufactured by child labor which was referred back to the finance committee is assured. It was indicated tonight that when the committee got through with it the claim could not be made that it was an impediment to American trade or a protection to the American manufacturers.

Senator Simmons said that the bill completed would be reported to the senate next Monday or Tuesday together with the committee report and that the caucus would complete consideration of the measure Friday or Saturday.

RAIN STORM BRINGS RELIEF TO VETERANS

THUNDERSTORM LOWERS TEMPERATURE AT GETTYSBURG

Military Day is Celebrated at Big Tent But Few Veterans Appeared To Listen to Speech Making—Picturesque Event Scheduled for Today at Bloody Angle.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 2.—A roaring storm swept down out of the Plateau of Gettysburg to day bringing needed relief to thousands of veterans in blue and grey who have sweltered for four days in an atmosphere that would do credit to a fireless cooker but is dangerous in a city of fifty thousand old and weary men. For more than a half hour the rain came pouring down upon the sun cracked and wind swept encampment ground. It charged with violent thundering over the ground that Pickett covere in '63. Its salvos of thunder were like the booming guns of Meade and Lee but the thermometer dropped with wonderful agility and the lightning cleared the air of its burden of humidity. In the vanguard of the storm was a wind that eddied the dust in clouds, blinded the veterans and made the thoughtful scurry for their tents to lash them down. They showed they hadn't forgotten the old days for not a tent was blown over and not a veteran was injured. At the big tent where the formal exercises were held the army of workmen hurried in the face of the storm to put up the canvas sides and prepare for the unusual. For days they have watched for the coming of a big wind and men have been stationed to tie it tight if the wind rose above a gentle breeze. Predictions have been many that a sudden gust would lift the canvas and the poles high into the air and spread destruction in its path.

Tonight veterans were really able to enjoy themselves for the first time since their arrival, although the ground was slippery, the roads a half inch deep in mud that once was dust and the grass was wet and uncomfortable.

Military Day at Big Tent.

This was military day at the big tent but comparatively few veterans appeared to listen to the speechmaking and to hear the bands play well known military airs. Col. Andrew Cowan of Louisville, Ky., acted as presiding officer of the day and brought the veterans to their feet when he began to praise Major Normoyle, Capt. Dalton and the other officers of the regular army who conduct the big camp.

"They have earned endearing fame and we thank them from the bottom of our hearts," he said.

Col. Cowan turned to the navy and the Japanese situation.

"We ought to build two battleships for every one laid down by Japan", he said, and the veterans cheered again and again. "The people on the seacoast cities ought not to be left without protection. We ought to be prepared to demand peace."

Other speakers of the day were Major General John R. Brooke of Pennsylvania, Sergeant John C. Schaborough of North Carolina and Lieut. Gov. Burchard of Rhode Island, representing the armies of the north and the south. Barry Bulkey of Washington read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Governor Burchard made a decided hit with the veterans.

Confederate General Present.

One of the most remarkable figures in camp to day was General Funkhauser of Virginia, who is 76 but who was vigorous enough in the hot sun to hunt up the headquarters of Brig. Gen. dunter Liggett and pay his respects. The gray-haired old confederate general who fought all through the war delighted the general of the newer army and his subordinate officers with his stories.

Thousands of veterans left the camp and Gettysburg to day for their homes and other probably will leave tomorrow. The army officers in charge through a cordon over the roads leading out to day and examined the baggage. Many government blankets supplied for the encampment were discovered removed.

So many cases have been reported of veterans losing their return railroad tickets and the consequent distress because of the inability to purchase transportation that Governor Tener notified General Liggett, the United States army officer in charge of the great camp that the state of Pennsylvania will pay the return fare of all veterans who have lost their tickets, no matter in what part of the United States they reside.

One of the picturesque events of the celebration is scheduled for tomorrow at the Bloody Angle, when the Philadelphia brigade of the Union Army and survivors of Pickett's division will form on opposite sides of the stonewall where the charge was stopped. They will charge as best they can with their burden of years but when they reach the wall they will stop and shake hands. On this spot they expect to pick out a location for a $250,000 mounment which they hope to have congress erect there.

MURDERED WOMAN IS UNIDENTIFIED

POLICE FIND BODY OF WELL DRESSED WOMAN WITH THROAT CUT

Body is Reported to be That of Mrs. Emma Caldwell of Peoria But Caldwell Has Not Been Located and Police Can Find no Clue to the Murderer.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Twelve hours after finding the body of a well dressed unidentified woman with her throat cut, the police admitted tonight that they had been unable to identify her or find any clue to a murderer.

Twice during the day it was announced that the body had been identified, only to be contradicted later. Once it was declared she was Mrs. F. W. Weston, a piano teacher, and later the body was said to be that of Mary Hunt.

Andrew Duffrane, a watchman at the Volunteers of America hotel, arrested on suspicion during the day, was released tonight.

The body was found in an alley at 701 West Madison street. The woman had been stabbed in the neck with a knife, severing the jugular vein. Several pieces of jewelry were found on the body, indicating that robbery had not inspired the murder.

A man who gave his name as Charles Martin, a painter, visited the morgue tonight and declared the body that of Mrs. Emma Caldwell, wife of Thomas Caldwell, who lived at 410 Oak street, Peoria, Ill., in 1911.

The police of Peoria were asked to investigate.

Seen in Peoria Recently.

Peoria, Ill., July 2.—Thomas Caldwell, husband of the woman murdered in Chicago, is said to have been seen in Peoria two days ago. The police up to midnight have been unable to locate him. Caldwell was employed by a local coal company two years ago, but since that time has not been in Peoria until seen here last Monday. An acquaintance informed the police tonight Caldwell was driving a wagon for a local transfer company.

HOLD NAVY DAY PROGRAM AT PROGRESSIVE CONFERENCE

Roosevelt Delivers Speech On the "American Navy"—Naval Apprentices Give Drill.

Newport, R. I., July 2.—Baked clams and battleships, oratory, both patriotic and political and a drill of naval apprentices were combined today in the navy day program of the national Progressive conference. In a big tent on Newport Beach, Theodore Roosevelt delivered his morning speech on "the American Navy." It was a plea for the maintenance of adequate naval strength. He declared that in international relations the only safe course for the American people was to combine absolute courtesy and justice toward other nations with that prepared for war which is the only sure means of averting war.

In his second address the colonel discussed Progressive policies quoted from the party's platform of last year and said that this declaration of principles would be recognized in the future as one of the great triumphs in American policies.

Former Senator Albert Beveridge of Indiana discussed conservation, monopoly and tariff.

B. F. Fridge, Progressive national committeeman from Mississippi was another speaker. A drill and parade of the naval apprentices at the naval training station brought the day's celebration to a close.

STABBING RESULT OF VETERAN'S ANGER

Seven are Stabbed During Melee in Dining Room of Gettysburg Hotel

DEFEND LINCOLN'S NAME

Union Veteran's Anger Aroused by Hearing Slighting Remarks About Lincoln

PANIC CAUSED AMONG GUESTS

GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 2.—Seven men were stabbed tonight in the dining room of the Gettysburg hotel as a result of a fight which started when several men aroused the anger of an old veteran in blue by abusing Lincoln. Several of the wounded men are in a serious condition at the Pennsylvania State hospital. The state constabulary are making desperate efforts to find the men who did the stabbing.

The wounded men are: Edward J. Carroll, sergeant of the quartermaster's corps, U. S. A.; David Farbor of Butler, Pa., a member of the state constabulary; John D. Maugin, Harrisburg; Malcolm Griffin, Bedford City, Pa.; Charles Susler, West Fairview, Pa.; Hayder Renisbecker, Gettysburg, and Harry A. Root, Jr., Harrisburg. Farbor, Maugin and Griffin are in the most serious condition. Their wounds were in the left breast and the surgeons at the Pennsylvania State hospital would not venture predictions as to their chance of recovery.

Fight Starts Suddenly.

According to all the information the authorities could gather the fight started suddenly and was over in a few minutes. It began shortly before 7 o'clock when the dining room was full of people and caused a panic among the scores of guests.

The old veteran who was unhurt and disappeared in the melee was sitting near Farbor and Carroll when he heard the slighting remarks about Lincoln. He jumped to his feet and began to defend the martyred president and berated his detractors. The men who were stabbed, according to the information the surgeons gathered, jumped to the defense of the veteran when the others closed in. Knives were out in a second and the room was thrown in an uproar. Women fled for the doors and crowded to the windows ready to jump to the street below. It was all over before the rest of the men in the room could get their breath and the men responsible for it had all got out and away. The fight spurred the medical men again tonight to an effort to have the Gettysbury saloons closed during the remainder of the celebration. The constabulary later arrested a man who gave the name of W. B. Henry and said his home was in Camden, N. J., as one of the men concerned in the affray. They believe that more than one man was responsible.

W. B. Henry Arrested.

The man who the police charge with doing the stabbing gave his name as W. B. Henry, Philadelphia.

Henry, with one or two companions, was seated at a table and there was a general talk about the war which soon developed ugly feeling. Finally, according to eye-witnesses, Henry applied a vile epithet to Abraham Lincoln. It was resented hotly by a union veteran, who seized a glass or bottle and threw it at Henry. Immediately there was an uproar and Henry, according to the version the constabulary gives, jumped to his feet, drew a knife and began slashing at those nearest him.

H. N. Baker of Pennsylvania is said to be the union veteran who took exception at the remarks about Lincoln.

PLAN PLAY FESTIVAL BY WARD SCHOOL CHILDREN

Executive Board of Playground Association Arrange For Event in August—Has Been Success in Other Cities.

A play festival in which all children of the city above the third grade can take part will be given in August just before the chautauqua if the plans of the executive board of the playgrounds association and of the supervisor work out as expected. The board which met Wednesday evening to discuss ways and means to make the playground as useful and interesting as possible, consists of F. J. Heinl, Miss Louise Capps, Mrs. C. E. Cole, J. J. Kelly and Abe Weihl. With the board met Mr. Ruyter, the new supervisor of the playground who with Mrs. Ruyter arrived in the city a short time ago.

The idea of a play festival with the folk dances and songs, marches and drills, is not new, such events having been given with much success in Chicago and other cities. The children of the ward schools, above the third grade will be eligible for this event. Mr. Ruyter is planning to give two mornings a week at the second, third and fourth ward buildings, the ones not near the playground. If the festival is the success it has proved to be in other cities it is probable that it will be repeated during the chautauqua.

More definite instruction as to time and places of meeting for training will be announced when more of the details have been arranged and when the school board has been consulted with regard to the use of the grounds for that purpose.

Mr. Ruyter is an expert at playground work. He is assistant supervisor of physical education in the schools of Chicago and has twelve of the well equipped schools of that city under his personal supervision.

The playground under expert supervision is recognized as a highly valuable factor in the all around education of the child. City schools with well equipped gymnasiums give such playgrounds much attention. Directed play has a value in the child's development which the best of formal gymnastic work cannot displace. In a playground of this kind, it is the kind of supervision rather than the quality of equipment that counts. Children turned loose in a playground with the finest of apparatus for exercise and games would not get the benefit to be found in a playground of modest equipment under an expert supervisor who knows how to instruct the young in folk dances, gymnastic exercises and interesting games. Mr. Ruyter has had wide experience and the Jacksonville playground is well equipped. There is no doubt but that the play festival and other plans discussed by the board and supervisor will be highly successful.

Take a day off and attend the races at the Driving park, July 4th.

SOME FARMERS ARE LAYING BY THEIR CORN.

Corn plowing is the order of the day among the farmers and the coveted stalks are shooting out of the ground at a rapid rate. Dick Green who is on the Orear farm east of the city, finished laying by eighty acres of corn Wednesday. Scott Green and Marion Zackery have also laid by their corn. The recent rains have proved a great benefit to the oats crop. The grain has taken on new life in a number of fields and the stalks will be of sufficient height as to allow the use of the binder.

HAS INJURED ARM.

Ernest Berry May be Robbed of Hammer and Discuss Prowess.

Ernest Berry, a former student of Illinois college but who has been attending Lake Forest university the past year, received an injury to his right arm while playing football last fall which may rob him of his power with the discus and hammer. It will be remembered that when Berry was a student of the Beardstown High school he won honors in these two events and after coming to Illinois developed into a star with the hammer and discus. His arm is twisted in such a way that he cannot equal, anyway close, his former marks. Berry's home is at Merritt, Ill.

BEES CARRY EIGHTEEN GALLONS OF HONEY INTO SPENCER HOME

Little Creatures Become Cross in Family Residence Which Necessitated Their Being Killed.

There was a bee killing time at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Spencer who lives five miles south of Murrayville Wednesday. For some time they had become so cross that Mrs. Spencer found it necessary to call in Messrs. Charles Wagstaff and Euel Day. They took up the carpet and flooring in the hallway and gained access to the storage place of the tireless little workers. Considerable time was consumed before the bees could be killed. Gathering honey was next on the program and eighteen gallons were removed, honey of the most delicious flavor.

HORSES ARE FEWER.

The books in the office of County Assessor Jerry Cox, indicate that in Jacksonville automobiles are supplanting horses to some extent at least. For the number of horses assessed in Jacksonville this year is about 33 1-3 per cent less than in 1908. Figures for the last six years on the horses owned in Jacksonville are as follows:

1913	806
1912	853
1911	1,003
1910	1,118
1909	1,143
1908	1,293

The number of cows too, by the way, is growing less in Jacksonville as figures for the same period of years indicate, but that can hardly be charged up to the buzz wagons. The cow statistics are as follows:

1913	219
1912	289
1911	303
1910	301
1909	294
1908	361

HAS FILED SUIT FOR DIVORCE

James O. Priest, acting as attorney for Mrs. Mamie N. Fortado has filed a bill in which Mrs. Fortado asks a divorce from her husband, Robert R. Fortado. Mrs. Fortado who prior to her marriage was Mrs. Mamie Nunes, alleges that she left her husband in February of this year because of his continued cruel conduct and because of non-support. Mrs. Fortado asks for the custody of their two children, Hazel Louise and Mary Priscilla and that the court shall allow her permanent alimony of $50 a month. She also asks the court to debar Mr. Fortado from a dower interest in any realty that she may have or inherit.

NORWAY'S FUTURE KING.

Christianala, July 2.—Many flags were displayed in the capital to day in observance of the tenth birthday anniversary of the Crown Prince Olav, who if he lives will some day become the king of Norway. The northern climate appears to have agreed with the prince, who has developed into a lively, robust youngster during his eight years' residence in Norway. Many persons profess to see in the features of the youthful prince a decided likness to his maternal grandfather, the late King Edward VII. of England.

ILLINOISANS AT GETTYSBURG.

In the battles at Gettysburg, Illinois certainly took a leading part, for it was Gen. J. N. Buford's troops who began the battle. The immediate command finding the Confederates then was the 8th Ill. Cav. organized by Col. Jno. F. Farmsmith, before and afterward for many years member of congress from the Kane county district. His nephew Elon J. Farnsmith, just commissioned a Brigadier General June 29, 1863, was at Gettysburg.

In this connection it is more than worthy of note that Gen. George E. Pickett, who made the final heroic charge of the Confederates was appointed to West Point from the Quincy, Ill., district and was a personal acquaintance of President Lincoln.

In some of her recent stories Mrs. Gen. Pickett tells of President Lincoln calling upon her when he visited Richmond, immediately after its capture by Gen. Grant, and how Lincoln took "George Pickett's" baby in his arms. How also the little one replied in manner to the great hearted president.

WILL STUDY DOMESTIC SCIENCE IN EAST.

Misses Nell Reaugh and Bess Breckon of this city, together with some friends of Miss Breckon from Kansas City, left Wednesday for New York, where they will take a six weeks' course in domestic science at Columbia university. Among the young ladies from Kansas City was Miss Ruth Patterson, formerly of the Woman's college. Miss Reaugh taught domestic science last winter at Collinsville and Miss Breckon was a teacher of the same subject at Kansas City.

JOSEPH BOWERS CONFESSES BURGLARIZING BARR'S LAUNDRY

Youth Arrested on Charge Claims He Had Nothing to Eat For Several Days—Denies Other Attempted Burglaries.

Joseph Bowers, the youth who was arrested early Wednesday morning on a charge of burglarizing Barr's Laundry, confessed to the charge Wednesday, but denied having tried to enter the H. J. & L. M. Smith Millinery, Brennan's Hardware and Montgomery & Deppe's stores.

When Miss Laura Smith opened the store Wednesday morning she found the rear door open, and discovered that the register had been tampered with and the desk pried open and the papers rifled, evidently by some one in search of money. At Brennan's a sheet of metal on a rear window was forced back and at Muehlhausen Brothers a wooden shutter on a back window was partly cut through.

According to the story of the prisoner he is 18 years of age and claims that his home is in Minneapolis. He said that he left home a year ago, on account of ill treatment, his step-father, who he claims is an intemperate man, had given. "After working in Chicago for some time he said the boy, "I went to Kansas City where I worked in a canning factory, and not being satisfied there I started back to Chicago. I arrived in Jacksonville Tuesday and for a time Tuesday evening sat on the curb on West Morgan street, listening to the band. I had eaten nothing for two days and as I sat there the idea came to me to break intothe laundry. I found an open window, cut the screen and after getting 40 cents worth of stamps and $4.05 in money from the registered I climbed out again, I was nearly worn out and after going a short distance from the place sat down and went to sleep."

When found by the officers Bowers was itting on an umbrella which contained some needles and knitting articles, but he denied having broken into the store or any other place except the laundry. He claimed that the umbrella was there when he sat down, although this seems unlikely. In the rear of the Smith Millinery the police found a piece of a chisel bearing the initials, "F. B."

FALLS UNCONSCIOUS FROM BUGGY.

While seated in a buggy in front of Knollenberg's cigar store Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Frank Roby of the Jacksonville State Hospital lost consciousness suddenly and fell underneath the behicle, alighting on his head. he man was observed to topple over while in the act of lighting a cigarette. He was carried into Knollenbergs' store by John Larson and Harold McGinnis who were standing near. He was soon able to walk back out to the buggy and drive off with Newton Davis, a buyer for the hospital, in whose vehicle the man was riding.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS ARE RELEASED ON $5,000 BONDS

July Grand Jury Will Decide Whether the Officers Are to Be Tried For Manslaughter.

Chicago, June 2.—Ten officials of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated railroad and the Aurora, Elgin & Chicago railway held responsible by a coroner's jury for the deaths of George M. Scott and Mrs. Harriet Smith whose automobile was run into on a crossing by an Aurora car were released on $5,000 bonds each today. Other officials comprising the directorates of the two roads are expected to give themselves up tomorrow. Those of the Metropolitan company released were: Samuel Insull, chairman of the board of directors, Britton I. Budd, president; E. C. Noe, general manager; F. A. Delano, William A. Fox, John F. Gilchrist, Gilbert E. Porter, H. G. Hetzler and W. W. Crawford, directors. Harry Greenbaum, a director of the Aurora road, was the only member of that corporation released. A total of $665,000 was scheduled by the ten men who went surety for each other.

The July grand jury whose duty it will be to inquire into the deaths and decide whether the officials are to be tried for manslaughter will be sworn in July 4th.

ASKS THAT JOHNSON'S BOND FOR $30,000 BE FORFEITED

Bonds Contain Provision That Negro Must Not Leave Northern Illinois.

Chicago, July 2.—United States District Attorney Wilkerson entered a motion in the federal court today asking that the personal bond for $30,000 given by Jack Johnson, negro prize fighter, on eleven indictments under the Mann white slave act, for which he has not yet been tried, be forfeited.

Arguments on the motion will be heard tomorrow morning. Appeal bonds for $15,000 also are pending against Johnson.

These were signed by Matthew Baldwin, a real estate dealer, when the negro was granted permission to carry his case to the United States circuit court of appeals.

In the bonds given in the untried indictments, there is a provision that the negro must not leave the jurisdiction of the district court of northern Illinois. It is on this provision that Mr. Wilkerson has asked that the bonds be forfeited.

These indictments charge that Johnson paid for the transportation of Belle Schreiber between Milwaukee and Chicago Christmas week, 1910. Johnson is now on a ship bound for Europe.

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS BEFORE PROGRESSIVES

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF PARTY OPENS AT NEWPORT.

Colonel Points to Party's Platform as One of the Great Documents of Political History—Cites Two Demands From It.

Newport, R. I., July 2.—The demand made in the first national platform of the Progressive party for regulation of corporations and combinations to "insure their doing justice to their rivals, to their customers and to their employees," has been emphasized, Theodore Roosevelt declared this afternoon at the clambake which opened the national conference of the Progressive party, by what has occurred since election in the West Virginia bituminous coal fields.

In opening his speech, Colonel Roosevelt pointed to the Progressive platform upon which he ran for the presidency last fall as a document which upholders of social and industrial justice in the future will recognize as one of the great documents of American political history. From it he cited two demands—the first that the national government undertake on a gigantic scale the work of harnessing the flood waters of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, using for that purpose the outfit that has been used in the construction of the Panama canal. The second demand already referred to, Colonel Roosevelt dwelt upon at considerable length. He suoted from court decisions and declared that he wished he could make the men of property understand that in fighting such decisions and such conditions as in West Virginia he was fighting against anarchy in favor of law and order and for property.

"The utter futility of the plan of action, or rather non-action, advocated in both the Republican and Democratic platforms last year, and christened by President Wilson with magniloquent vagueness 'The New Freedom,' has been strikingly shown by what has thus occurred in West Virginia," Colonel Roosevelt declared. "'The New Freedom' is nothing whatever but the right of the strong to prey on the weak, of the big men to crush the little men, and to shield their iniquity beneath the cry that they are exercising freedom."

Colonel Roosevelt's speech this afternoon sounded the keynote of the Progressive policies and opened the discussion of party ideals and ideas that will continue two days. Referring again to President Wilson's article on "The New Freedom," Colonel Roosevelt said:

"A careful study of the articles that have appeared by President Wilson dealing with this subject since he was president has left me somewhat puzzled as to what he really does mean, but of course I assume that there must be meaning, and if this assumption is warranted then 'The New Freedom' means nothing whatever but the old license translated into terms of pleasant rhetoric.

"There is but one way to interfere with freedom to inflict slavery on others, and that is by invoking the supervisory, the regulatory, the controlling and directing power of the government precisely as the Progressives last year demanded in their platform and as I and others like me demanded in our speeches."

Dealing with the regulation of corporations and combinations and using the West Virginia strike as the basis for his arguments for the adoption of Progressive principles, Colonel Roosevelt said in part:

"What is needed is the thorough rooting out of the conditions which brought about the dreadful state of affairs in the West Virginia bituminous fields. In that region we see in actual operation the over-competitive conditions to which the advocates of the 'new freedom' would have us return under the impression that they offer a panacea for all our ills.

"Under the pressure of an unenlightened capitalistic opinion, the West Virginian courts have rendered decisions—in strict accordance with the principles of the 'new freedom'—which themselves serve as the most striking object lessons of the need of the widespread application of Progressive principles. In the district where the rioting has occurred the employing operators have endeavored to keep the miners in a state of practical serfage by the use of the company stores. This fact has been recognized and the practice forbidden in most civilized countries; in England, for instance, legislation was passed forbidding this practice more than seventy years ago. The West Virginia legislature did its duty by passing laws requiring the cash payment of wages, and prohibiting persons and corporations engaged in mining and manufacture from selling any merchandise or supplies from stores to their employees at a greater percentage of profit than to outsiders. These laws were contested in the courts as unconstitutional.

"As a whole the West Virginia court has declared that they were ineffective, as in contraventionof the Constitution. The court explicitly states that a contract for labor is property, thereby putting the life blood of men, women and children on a level with the commodities they produce.

"In 33 West Virginia 179 and 188, the court explicitly repudiated the notion that the miners are entitled to be paid in cash or can by law be secured the right, or that the mine owners can be prohibited by law from selling to the laborers at a higher price that to outsiders. The court stated that these laws represented 'unjust interference with private contracts and business,'' and that they were an 'insulting attempt to put the laborer under legislative tutelage,' which was 'degrading to his manhood' and 'suppressive of his rights as a citizen of the United States.'

"These opinions put the case of the 'new freedom' concisely. They say that the laborer has the freedom, or as they phrase it the 'right' to sell his labor as he thinks best, and that any law controlling this right is unconstitutional. Literally and exactly this decision stands on a par with one which in the name of freedom should guarantee the laborer the right to sell himself into slavery. Finally when the result was an outburst of wild violence, sn that there practically remained no law, no constitution, no court, the authorities were forced to grapple with the actual need of things by instituting martial law.

"Judging from the letters published by Father Collins, a priest whose knowledge of the situation and devotion of the cause of labor seem to be unquestioned, it was necessary to declare martial law. But once order has been restored it is even more essential that the governmental authorities shall resolutely devote themselves to the destruction of the bitterly unjust conditions which were responsible for causing the anarchy.

"I wish I could make the men of property in this country, the big business men in New York in Boston, in Providence, throughout our country, understand that in fighting such conditions as these in the bituminous coal fields, and in fighting such court decisions as those which I have quoted, I am fighting against anarchy against ocialism of the I. W. W. and in favor of law and order and for property.

"In dealing with big corporations, as in dealing with all business, it is an absolute necessity for us to abandon the utter folly of discriminating against them on the ground of size instead of on the ground of conduct. Combinations may exist for a good purpose just as they may exist for a bad purpose, whether among farmers, among laborers; and as regards all of them our aim should be effectively to suppress combinations that work evil, and also to favor those that do well, while nevertheless exercising over them such thorough going control as to enable us to be sure that they in very fact do well, alike to competitors, to wage workers and to the general public.

"Our proposal is to put the government, acting for the general public, in such shape that it will not ask justice as a favor but demand it as a right which it is ready and able to enforce. The Constitution belongs to the people and not the people to the Constitution; and the courts are the servants legislative and executive alike. It is for the people and not the courts to say whether we shall have such laws in the interest of social and industrial justice, acts providing for cash payment in wages and abolishing these company stores.

"In the words of Abraham Lincoln, we propose that the people shall control both the legislatures and the courts, not to pervert the Constitution, but to overthrow those whose who themselves pervert the Constitution into an instrument for perpetuating injustice, intsead of making it what it must and shall be made, the most effective of all possible means for securing to the people of the whole country the right everywhere to create conditions which will tend for the uplift of the ordinary, the average men, women and children of the United States."

ANSWERED SUDDEN DEATH SUMMONS

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER HARNEY EXPIRED AT NOON WEDNESDAY.

Ruptured Blood Vessel Assigned as Cause of His Untimely Going—Complained of Pain in Head as he Rose From Table and a Moment Later Lapsed Into Unconsciousness.

The community was shocked early Wednesday afternoon by the announcement of the very sudden death of J. W. Harney, assistant postmaster. Mr. Harney had seemingly been in his usual health Wednesday at noon when he went to his home on South Diamond street, but just as he finished his dinner he complained of a sharp pain in the back of his head and in a moment lapsed into unconsciousness, his death resulting within forty-five minutes. A ruptured blood vessel is assigned as the cause of his sudden going.

After leaving the postoffice Mr. Harney walked directly to his home on South Diamond street. His son George was picking cherries and the long and heavy ladder he was using needed moving. Mr. Harney worked with that for several minutes before he sat down to the dinner table and it is likely that working as he did in the heat of the sun resulted in the rupture of a blood vessel of the brain.

Mr. Harney was a son of M. M. Harney and was born in this county, practically his entire life being spent here. Had he lived until the 16th of this month he would have been 53 years of age. After completing his education he became a carpenter and stair-builder and was an especially skilled mechanic. Some time after learning the trade he went into business for himself and operated a part of the Crawford mill, turning out the finished lumber and material which he used in his contracts for interior house and store work. When John R. Davis was mayor Mr. Harney was appointed superintendent of streets and filled that position with acceptance through a period of years. Shortly after John J. Reeve became postmaster he appointed Mr. Harney, who was his boyhood friend, as assistant and from that time until the hour of his death Mr. Harney held that position. He gave such careful and conscientious attention to the many duties of that office that he secured the general reputation for especial efficiency. At the same time his relations with all of the employes of the office was the most cordial and to them the suddenness of Mr. Harney's going came as a special shock. The relationship existing between Mr. Reeve and Mr. Harney was very close as they had been associated for so long a time as friends and during the past six years or more in the government service.

Mr. Harney was married September 5, 1883, to Miss Elizabeth Woodall and their married life has been especially happy. Mrs. Harney and six children survive. They are Charles of this city, John at present in Beardstown and George at home, Misses Margaret, Helen and Ethel at home. There are also three brothers and two sisters surviving. They are Mrs. John Lewis of this county, Mrs. Fred O'Haver of Los Angeles, Calif., George of this city, Robert of the Lynnville neighborhood and Milton Harney of Peoria.

The deceased was a member of Centenary church, of Illini lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., Favorite No. 376, K. of P., and the M. P. I.

Mr. Harney was of kindly genial disposition, a man of strong character who looked upon the duties of life as worthy of the best service possible. So he conscientiously followed out the course he determined upon as right and his character was of that strong and honest type which appeals to men as in every way worthy. A dutiful husband and father, a warm hearted friend, his sudden going has brought great sorrow to a large company of relatives and friends.

The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the residence.

FINAL SPECIAL TAX NOTICE.

In the matter of the special tax of the city of Jacksonville for the construction of a vitrified pipe sewer on Dunlap street.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that the Board of Local Improvements of said city has heretofore filed in the county court of Morgan county, Illinois, in said cause, a certificate showing the cost of the work, the amount reserved for interest, and also that the improvement has been constructed in substantial conformity to the requirements of the original ordinance therefor.

The hearing to consider and determine whether or not the facts as stated in said certificate are true, will be held in said court on the 24th day of July A. D. 1913, at 9 o'clock or as soon thereafter as the business of the court will permit.

All persons desiring may file objections in said court before said day and may appear on the hearing and make their defense.

INTEREST IN RIVERS-RITCHIE BATTLE.

San Francisco, Cal., July 2.—With the near approach of the date for the fight between Willie Ritchie and Joe Rivers public interest in the battle has increased to a noticeable extent. It will be the only contest on the entire Fourth of July calendar in which a title is involved and will be the first fight in which Ritchie has engaged in since he won the championship from Ad Wolgast. The prevailing opinion that Rivers is capable of giving the champion a hard fight for the title and the long end of the purse adds to the interest that is being manifested in the bout. Eddie Graney, who is the promoter of the contest, expects a record-breaking crowd at the ringside. Both of the fighters completed their hard work of training to day and will take it easy until the gong calls them into the ring Friday afternoon. Judging from the reports given out at their respective training quarters there is little to choose between the two fighters so far as physical condition is concerned.

STONEWALL JACKSON IN YANKEE LAND.

The present anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, fought July 1, 2 and 3, 1863, brings to mind and proper attention memory of the great southern general, Thomas Jonathan Jackson, known in history as Stonewall Jackson.

To the issue of the Jacksonville Independent of April 14th, 1870, the writer contributed the subjoined sketch.

The Dr. Halsted referred to was a second or third cousin of the late Dr. Milton A. Halstead, of this city.

At the time, in 1860, when I saw Gen. Jackson at Northampton, there were from this place Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Moore, Miss Julia S. Duncan, Miss Eliza McMacken, Mr. Fleming Stevenson and his daughter, Miss Nettie. Some, or all, of these met Gen. Jackson. There was also at Round Hill hotel at that time, Mr. Geo. P. Plant(then of St. Louis, but formerly well known here) He having been the civil engineer in constructing the Northern Cross railroad, the beginning of the Wabash system of today).

Only those who lived during the fiery days preceding, during and succeeding the war can realize how the slavery question and Secession were daily and hot subjects of discussion; and the Round Hil lhotel, where many southerners spent their summers, had its full share of such talks.

It is to be remembered that, in the battling under Gen. Hooker, before his removal from command of the Army of the Potomac and the substitution of Gen. George G. Meade, who won the battle of Gettysburg, Gen. Jackson had been one of the leading actors, up to the time of his death, May 10th, 1863, at or about Chancellorsville, Va.

In the beautiful Connecticut valley, seventeen miles north of Springfield, Mass., Northampton nestles beneath the shadow of Mt. Holyoke. Meadows lie between the village and the river, whence broad elmshaded streets climb up the slowly rising sides of Round Hill. Here the crowning glory of all the beauty of Beecher's "Norwood" contains. For village,meadow, river, hill and mountain go to make up a panorama of scenery called by Willis "The Switzerland of America." While in Round Hill's sylvan bowers, Jenny Lind, the Swedish Nightingale, sang of an "Eden." Perhaps the quietude of nature, the grave of Brainard, the proximity of classic Amherst and of spirituelle South Hadley, and the immortal spirit of Jonathan Edwards, have all had their influence in rendering Northampton and Round Hill a Paradise. Sure it is no one ever goes there but to be filled with a joy of natural felicitation which is unspeakable. In August of 1860, ere this decade of human progress had been born, the writer sojourned awhile at the Round Hill water cure and hotel.

Among many guests, all more or less notable at their homes, was one man who became the object of much ocular attention.

Upon the hotel register, since the morning of Lincoln's first election and the dark noon of Chancellorsville, hundreds of eyes have read the simple writng, "T. J. Jackson, Virginia."

"T. J. Jackson,"—"Stonewall"—bulwark of the Confederacy in its strongest days!

Being in ill health, Mr. Jackson had gone with his wife up from Virginia to Brattleboro, Vermont, and taken rooms at the water cure there. Upon the door of his room a schedule of prices was posted by the proprietor. When Mr. Jackson went to pay a bill, the proprietor charged higher rates than those in the schedule. At this the future general "up-rose," and made a flank movement which ended in Round Hill becoming his base of supplies instead of Brattleboro.

On the Hill, being under regular treatment, Mr. Jackson submitted to all the rules and executed all directions with military spirit and soldierly promptness. So that those who knew nothing of him personally noticed his peculiar air betokening that nothing could stand in his way. The writer remembers (as distincely as though it were an occurrence of yesterday) seeing this heavenly-minded man developing upon the air of free New England a strength with which, time and again, in two short years, he should lead armies of the slave-engrafting south to victory.

Dwarfed to medium height by a planter's black broad brimmed hat; clad in black broadcloth, with single breasted coat buttoned to the throat; black haired, dark eyed, with black whiskers of an inch or two in length overhung by a cornice of black mustaches;—as he marced around the quiet streets of "Norwood," why did not people know the wild,, dark fate this man was to send to many a brave blue eyed New England boy?

Strange anomalies are always present. But none was ever stranger than that a great leader in the cause of human slavery should worship regularly and devoutly, Sundays and at the weekly night meetings, with men burdened with the hate of slavery and filled almost to running over with thepatriotic blood of Lexington. Yet so did this good knight, one without personal reproach,in the church of Jonathan Edwards.

Dr. Halsted, of Round Hill, told the writer, two years since, of the unusual regularity of Mr. Jackson's attendance upon Divine worship. A circumstance particularly noticable, since most patients shirked religious duties.

All exercises, from walking to playing ten pins, were gone through with with the same faithfulness by this officer, whose subsequent commander pronounced him "the best executive officer in the Confederate army."

Few guests at the hotel enjoyed the pleasure of personal acquaintance or of conversation with the future general. Yet those who did, found in him, despite the dyspeptic morbidness of disease, the courteousness of a gentleman, and the noble-spirited truthfulness of a Christian. Dr. Halsted told the writer of many conversations with the general, held during his stay at the cure; a stay of three to six months. They often talked of Secession, which Jackson decried, but which he believed was sure to come.

On leaving the hotel in October, 1860, before getting into the coach which was to convey him to the cars, Mr. Jackson and the doctor stood with clasped hands. In parting Jackson said: "Good bye, doctor; God bless you! I do not know how this thing will end, but, if worst comes to worst, you will hear from me!"

Were his word prophetic?

Let beaten Banks of Waltham; let iron Sumner of the Senate; let a beleagured national capital; let Hadley's fighting Joe Hooker; let the agony of pure souled New England, bereft of her first born sons, reply. Still it is a well attested fact that during his rejuvenation at Northampton,the great raider moved about and conversed politically, "with malice toward none, with charity for all." Perhaps then it was not amiss that the Quaker poet of Amesbury shouldy write, immortalizing Barabra Fritchie,

"Honor to her; and let a tear
Fall for her sake on Stonewall's bier"

KANSAS' RICHEST WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Harriet Crowell Baker Passes Away at Atchison.

Atchison, Kan., July 1.—Mrs. Harriet Crowell Baker, widow of F. M. Baker and probably the wealthiest woman in Kansas died here tonight. She was 44 years of age. Her husband was one of the most prominent grain dealers of the west and was an extensive land owner.

The above quoted item, from Wednesday's Inter-Ocean will be of interest here. Mrs. Baker was the widow of Francis Marion Baker formerly well known here. Frank M. Baker, or "Bake" as he was called was born near Bethel this county, and served in the union army, being frightfully wounded in the battles under Gen. Geo. H. Thomas, about Nashville, Tenn., in December, 1864. Mr. Baker was then a mere boy.

After the war he came to Illinois college, entered Sigma Pi society, and was graduated in 1870. He studied law, then went into the grain business at Alexander with the late E. S. Greenleaf. Mr. Baker afterwards went to Kansas and after marriage his home was at Atchison.

SHEEP GO FOUR MONTHS WITHOUT WATER

Washington, July 2.—Sheep on the Nebo national forest, Utah, go four and a half months without water except for such moisture as they get from the dew and the juices of forage plants.

Grazing sheep on a range entirely destitute of water is a recent innovation due to the increasing demand for forage and the efforts of the forest officers to find a place on the forest ranges for all the stock that can safely be admitted. The area on the Nebo which has now proved usable by sheep is high and rocky, a portion of it being above the timber line, and it has neither springs nor streams of sufficient size or accessibility to be used for stock watering purposes. The grazing season lasts from June 15 to October 31, and during this period of four and a half months the animals do not get a drink.

Under such conditions, however, the sheep have done extremely well, and last year's lambs from this range had an average weight at the close of the season of 68 pounds on the Chicago market, which was rather above the normal weight from that vicinity.

In one area on the Targhee forest in Idaho sheep get water only twice during the four months summer grazing season. There is no water on the range, but the sheep are driven to a nearby stream lower down the mountain side. Lambs from this range weighed 65 pounds on the Chicago market.

NO DAMAGE DONE.

The fire department was called about noon yesterday to the home of J. H. Peet, 45 Davenport street. A gasoline stove in the kitchen flared up in an alarming sort of a way and for a few minutes threatened the destruction of the house but the flames had been extinguished by the time of the arrival of the department before any damage was done. The house is owned by F. J. Degen.

CROWDS AT PITTSBURGH EISTEDDFOD

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 2.—The international eisteddfod, the great Welsh musical and literary festival, was opened in this city today. The predictions that the gathering would be the largest and most representative of its kind ever held in America have already been fulfilled. Nearly every state of the union and many of the provinces of Canada are represented among the visitors. From Wales has come a large and distinguished delegation headed by Rev. Evan Rees of Cardiff, the chief bard of Wales.

Mr. Rees has come to the eisteddfod on a special mission to supervise the establishing of an American branch of the Bardic Corsedd, an ancient institution composed of all the leading literati of Welsh descent in the world. Mr. Rees, who is the archdruid of the order, will assist the Welshmen of America in the ceremonies, which will embody all the old rites and customs of the parent organization in Great Britain.

The prizes offered at the present eisteddfod for musical and literary compositions are larger and more numerous than ever before. The program provides for competitions for men's choirs and ladies' choirs. The Welsh societies of Chicago, Buffalo, Cleveland, Columbus, Utica, Harrisburg, Altoona, Pittsburgh, Scranton, Youngstown, Philadelphia and a number of other cities are entered The famous Porth choir of Wales also will take part.

The greatest interest of the week centers in the chief choral competition, which will take place Friday, the last day of the eisteddfod. The prize amounts to $7,000, and each competing choir is required to learn the choruses in Sir Edward Elgar's "King Olaf," a work of 200 pages.

PROGRESSIVE CONFERENCE AT NEWPORT

Newport, R. I., July 2.—The so-called summer capital today became the mecca for noted leaders of the Progressive party from many sections of the country. They have come to Newport for a two days' rally and conference which promises to be the most notable gathering of the party leaders since the Chicago convention last fall. In addition to the conference of the leaders the program calls for a series of public rallies in the new convention hall, with a monster clambake as the chief feature of entertainment. Colonel Roosevelt is on hand and this afternoon he delivered a non-partisan address on the subject of the American navy. Former Senator Beveridge, Gifford Pinchot and several other Progressive leaders of national prominence are scheduled for addresses tomorrow.

CHARGE ALIENATION OF AFFECTION.

Mention was made yesterday of a damage suit filed by T. F. Smith in behalf of George R. Covey against Mrs. Ada Long, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Abbott in which damages are asked in the sum of $5,000. It is understood that this is a suit based on alleged alienation of affection. Mr. and Mrs. Covey were married about two years ago and part of the time they lived in this city. It is that some months ago Mrs. Covey left her husband and went to the home of her parents in the country, subsequently it is said that he persuaded her to return but that afterwards she again left him. Mr. Covey maintains that the defendants named in this proceeding are the ones responsible for the unhappy conditions surrounding his home.

Good Time Now for Blood Health

Warm Days and Proper Help do Wonders for the Blood.

A few doses of that wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S., will start activities in the cellular tissues of the body and soon show decided changes in the skin. The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of the cells. Certain it is that in a surprisingly short time any skin eruption shows a most remarkable change; it begins to dry up; the skin scales off in tiny flecks, and soon a layer of clear, healthy and firm tissue results.

The reason for this is in the peculiar stimulation of S. S. S., which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutriment it requires for regeneration.

This fact has been demonstrated year in and year out in a wonderful number of cases of severe skin diseases that had seemed to be incurable.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store, if you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something "just as good."

S. S. S. is prepared by the Swift Specific Co., 180 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for their illustrated book on skin diseases.

BLOOMINGTON EASILY DEFEATS DANVILLE, 9 TO 4

ROUGH FIELD CAUSES MANY HITS.

Slow Fielding Mainly Responsible For Danville's Defeat—Bloomers Smash Out Eighteen Hits.

Danville, Ill., July 2.—Slow fielding by the locals was mainly responsible for the loss of today's game to Bloomington, 9 to 4.

The game was played on Soldiers' Home field and the rough infield caused many easy chances to go as hits.

Dubuque, 4; Davenport, 3.

Dubuque, Ia., July 2.—It was a pitcher's battle to day between Lamline and Hendrix and Lamline won. It was a ten inning game. After the third inning a Davenport man never reached second. In the last half of the tenth, Rolo Daringer made a hit good for a home run but he was held at third and it remained for his brother to bring him home which he did with a clean hit.

MAKE CLEAN SWEEP OF SERIES WITH PIRATES

TAKE FINAL GAME BY SCORE OF 6 TO 4.

Zimmerman Had a Narrow Escape On His Last Day to Remain On Good Behavior — Three Home Runs Made in Contest.

Chicago, July 2.—Chicago made a clean sweep of the series with Pittsburgh today by winning the final game of the series 6 to 4.

Today was Zimmerman's last day to remain on his good behavior in order to receive the other half of a $100 bill, one half of which was presented to him by a "fan" if he could refrain from being chased by the umpire for a period of two weeks. He had a very narrow escape, however. He was on third base and attepted to steal home. The throw beat him and Umpire Quigley called him out.

Zimmerman rose to his feet and commenced to argue with the umpire but suddenly calmed down and walked away. Score:

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES

At San Francisco a revival of trotting and pacing races under saddle is well under way, and promises to become as popular as it was a quarter of a century ago.

* * *

Jack O'Connor, who is manager of the St. Louis Federal leagune club, has been suspended by President Powers for his assault last Sunday upon Umpire Jack McNulty. The latter the past ten years has been an arbiter in semi-pro. games in the Mound City, and Sunday was to have been his first attempt among the professionals. O'Connor objected to McNulty and ordered him off the grounds, when a few choice Kerry Patch compliments were exchanged, O'Connor landing a blow upon and fracturing McNulty's jaw.

* * *

Jim Flynn is motoring with his wife from his home in Pueblo, Colo., to New York, where he is to meet "Gunboat" Smith in a ten-round go August 5. This will be the fireman's last appearance in the ring, his mother having prevailed upon him to withdraw from the game.

* * *

The merry-go-round at Porter, Ind., will open its gates on the 4th for a thirty days racing meet. Before leaving for Gettysburg Governor Ralston announced he would not interfere with the races, as he had been assured there would be no attempt at bookmaking.

* * *

There are a vast number of people who are not at all certain that Whisk Broom II. clipped those 2 4-5 seconds from the record of its illustrious sire, Broomstick. It is claimed the timer stopped his watch when the big horse was crossing the "real" line, which is forty yards removed from the finish line. The timer, Barretto, has "stopped the clock" in all the big eastern handicaps for more than two decades, and is accounted one of the best timers in the world, so that at this late day, and in a race like the famous Suburban, he was not apt to take time at the number board instead of at flag fall. The record will stand until shattered by a better nag.

* * *

Joe Rivers stands a grand chance of becoming light weight champion of the universe when he hooks up with Willie Ritchie on July 4th—Jim Corbett has picked the latter to win.

* * *

John McGraw had his tantalizing gab on tap at the game Monday to such an extent that Quaker Brennan landed upon Muggsy's mug with such force that the Giant's manager had to be carried to his hotel. McGraw's long suit is to get the goat of the timerous in all opposing teams. Four years ago at Chicago, when the Cubs were going through the Giants' breastworks much after the fashion of a Sennegambian in a preferred hen roost, McGray taunted the "Peerless Leader" with "Ah, all you have on your team is a lot of Dutchmen with their heads up." "Quite a reverse of your team, Muggsy," replied Chance, "which is composed of a lot of Irishmen with their tails down." Forever after Jawn allowed Chance's nanny to browse in peace.

* * *

Spike Shannon has cashed in his job as manager of the Virginia, Minn., team in the Northern league because of lack of financial interest on the part of the owners. Spike's cabaret cafe will now have the old star's undivided attention, as the Northern league has been regarded as the rainbow's end for the old timers.

* * *

French racing is costly and unprofitable, as will be observed from figures just issued by the stewards of the turf in that country. The average cost for the up-keep of a horse is placed at $1,000 per year. Training, entrance fees, jockey's mountings and other incidentals, aside from the capital invested, costs the owners $5,600,000 annually, while the total in purses and other prizes amount to $3,600,000, leaving a deficit of $2,000,000.

* * *

Charley Ebbetts will have the fourth gaand opening of his new Brooklyn stadium on July 15th, when the Cubs open with his infant perambulators. Charley always has been long on the grand opening stuff and the denizens of the Gowanus canal neighborhood seem to fatten on it.

* * *

"Bombadier" Wells, the English "heavy weight champion," at last has encountered a mark to whom he was able to hand the sleep producer. "Packey" Mahoney, a green 'un, took the count in the thirteenth frame before a London sporting club on Monday night, the "bombarder" landing a ladylike right to the chin.

* * *

The little Irish lad with the thorn and thistle name—Johnny Dundee—is the busiest boxer since the days of Jack McAuliffe and Harry Gilmore, Sr. Less than a month ago he was given a verdict over Charley White at Los Angeles. Tomorrow he meets Tommy Dixon of Kansas City, in New Mexico, and on July 29 at San Francisco he clashes with Harlem Tommy Murphy. The little Turk thus far has steered clear from the vaudeville managers, devoting all of his energies to boxing.

* * *

A rumor is current in New York that a syndicate headed by Commodore Vanderbilt will build a yacht to defend America's cup nevt year against Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV. Other millionaires will build boats and a series of trials will be had to determine the defender against the Irish baronet's newest Shomrock.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistency, which finally secured for him a good position.

MID-SUMMER DULLNESS SETTLES OVER STOCKS

SPECULATIVE INTEREST SEEMS TO HAVE VANISHED.

Market Was Characterized by a Firm Undertone, Although There was a Slightly Yielding Tendency at Opening and Close.

(By Associated Press)

New York, July 2.—The dullness of mid-summer settled over the stock market today and such traces of speculative interest as had survived the last few days of increasing inertia seemed to have been completely erased. Price movements were nominal. The market was characterized by a firm undertone, although at the opening and again at the close there was a slight yielding tendency.

Sentiment was inclined to be more cheerful. Crop reports which are receiving more attention with the advent of July, were somewhat more favorable, although fears were felt of further damage from heat in the southwest. Money market conditions improved. More important than either of these considerations as an immediate influence were indications of the strong technical position of the market. There was a keen borrowing demand for leading stocks, especially Union Pacific, which pointed to an oversold condition. Short covering was rendered difficult by the small offerings in sight around the present level of quotations.

OCEAN ENGAGEMENTS STRENGTHEN WHEAT

MARKET CLOSES STEADY AT A NET ADVANCE.

After an Easy Going Start Wheat Bulls Were Aroused by Signs of Preparation For Exports on a Large Scale.

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, July 2.—Ocean engagements of freight room said to amount to as much as 150 boat loads put strength today into wheat. The market closed steady at a net advance of ⅝c to ½@⅝c. Corn showed a gain of ⅞@1c to 1⅛c and oats a rise of ⅝@⅞c to ¾@⅞c. In provisions the finish was 10 to 30c above last night.

It was just after an easy going start that wheat bulls were aroused by signs of preparation for exports on a large scale.

There were various reports concerning these shipments that had uncertain effect on the market.

Unfavorable crop reports from the northwest helped to sustain wheat prices late in the session. Besides an authority here estimated the total domestic yield this season at 720,000,000 bushels against 730,000,000 bushels for 1912.

Improved industrial and shipping demand lifted corn despite splendid weather and favorable crop news. Shorts covered at a disadvantage after finding the market bare of offers. Bears in oats were handicapped by a story that the European crop was practically a failure.

The monthly statement regarding the stock of provisons here was construed as bullish and active buying swept prices upward.

Foreigns and packers evinced special eagerness for lard.

AILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Hilbert Tells of Her Distressing Symptoms During Change of Life and How She Found Relief.

Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do.

"One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine from a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."—Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

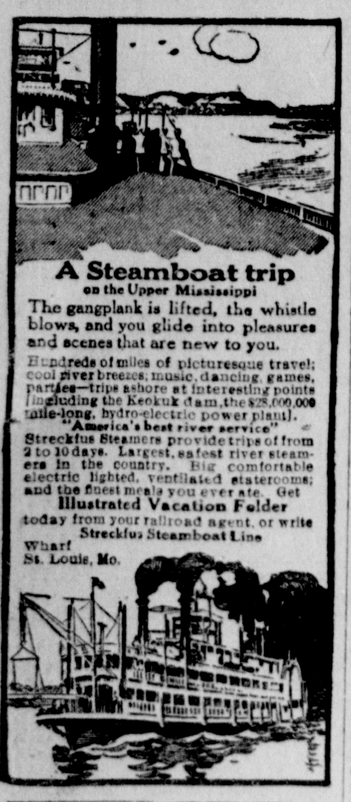

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system. It has carried many women safely through this crisis.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff, or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it stops the vitality; causing itching scalp falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

EDUCATORS ARRIVING AT SALT LAKE CITY

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 2.—Salt Lake City is dressed in holiday attire and thronged with the advance guard of the army of teachers who are to attend the annual convention of the National Educational Association. Although the business of the convention will not get under way until Saturday they are already many arrivals. The early visitors will devote the time preceding the opening of the convention to seeing the sights of Salt Lake City and vicinity.

The State of Utah as well as the citizens of Salt Lake City has appropriated money to meet the expenses of the convention. The result of this double expenditure is attended by the perfection of details looking to the entertainment of the thousands of pedagogues who will be here from every part of the country.

The general sessions of the convention will take place in the great Mormon Tabernacle. Numerous other halls will be used for the meetings of the various departments of the association. Every department will have its separate meeting place, and special rest rooms, reception parlors, information bureaus and the like will be provided.

FINAL SPECIAL TAX NOTICE.

In the matter of the special tax of the city of Jacksonville for the construction of a vitrified pipe sewer on Doolin avenue and Cox street.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that the Board of Local Improvements of said city has heretofore filed in the county court of Morgan county, Illinois, in said cause, a certificate showing the cost of the work, the amount reserved for interest, and also that the improvement has been constructed in substantial conformity to the requirements of the original ordinance. therefor.

The hearing to consider and determine whether or not the facts as stated in said certificate are true, will be held in said court on the 24th day of July, A. D. 1913, at 9 o'clock or as soon thereafter as the business of the court will permit.

All persons desiring may file objections in said court before said day and may appear on the hearing and make their defense.

Secretary.

Dated Jacksonville, Ill., June 9, 1913.

CANADA IN THE HENLEY REGATTA.

London, July 2.—The annual Henley regatta opened to day and will continue through the remainder of the week. No oarsmen of the United States are entered in the regatta this year, but Canada is better represented than ever before and it would not be surprising if one of the conveted trophies was captured by the Canadians.

Most interest centers in the contest for the Grand Challenge Cup, which for seventy five years has been considered the "blue ribbon" of amateur rowing. he trophy is now held by an Australian crew and was previously won by a Belgian crew several times. This year an eight oared crew from the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto will endeavor once more to secure a victory for the Dominion. The only foreign entry in the Grand Challenge event is that of the Uaris Rowing Club.

An Argonaut four is entered for the Stewards' Challenge Cup, while in the Diamond Sculls competition same club will be represented by their crack single sculler, Everand B. Butler.

The race for the Diamond Sculls will bring together many of the foremost amateur single scullers of the entire world. In addition to the entries from the United Kingdom, the paticipants will include representatives of Canada, Tasmania, Germany, Russia, France, Italy and Monaco.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER IS 92.

London, July 2.—Receiving congratulations, from distinguished friends on both sides of the Atlantic, Sir Charles Tupper, former premier of Canada, today observed his ninety-second birthday anniversary, surrounded by members of his family. Sir Charles returned to England this spring after a visit of a year with his son in Vancouver. In view of his advanced age it is doubtful if he will ever be able to pay another visit to the country where he was so many years leader in public affairs.

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL AND THE LIME KILN

Effervescent First Applied to White Stockings by Mutuals at Dexter Park July 23, 1870.

The 43d birthday of the splashing of lime in a professional baseball game will dawn upon fandom Wednesday, July 23, and of the millions of devotees of the game there is not to exceed one in every one hundred of them who can recall how, when or where the kiln exploded. At Dexter park, located at the stock yards, Chicago, on July 23, 1870, the Mutuals of New York and the White Stockings of Chicago met in a championship game before a crowd of about 10,000 of the faithful. For Chicago the battery was Mark Burns, pitcher; Bill Craver, catcher. In the points for the Mutuals were Ed Wolters, pitcher, and Charley Mills at the receiving end. Johnny Clark, a well known Philadelphia boxing instructor, was the umpire. Young Burns had been picked up on the first eastern invasion of the season by Tom Foley, the owner of the White Stockings. He was only 18 years of age and had quit St. John College, Fordham, in the Bronx, New York, to embark in professional baseball. At the college he had been going great guns, when discovered by Foley. He had pitched his college mates into the eastern university championship and had established a record for distance throwing a baseball which to this day has not been equalled. This latter feat, however, he was never credited with, because the performance "had not been witnessed by some official authorized to allow the markings." The Chicago press in those days hailed young Burns not unlike some person blessed with a supernatural power in the art of baseball hurling.

The score in that day's game was Mutuals, 9; Chicago, 0. Burns' work was the most brilliant ever witnessed up to that date in Chicago. The ball in those days was bowled, or "pitched straightarm." The catcher played about twenty feet back of the plate until two strikes were called, when he moved up "behind the bat." In that game Bill Craver refused to come up at any time, and it was no trouble for the batsman to go down to first and all the way around insofar as Craver was concerned. Had the backstops been reversed Burns would have created a strike-out record. All the pleading of Jimmy Woods, the captain, and by the crowd could not move Craver from the 30-foot back line. He claimed Burns was too swift to hold, and that if he "played in" he would be minus his conveyors for the knife and fork. He was jeered and hooted at every turn by the fans—all to no avail.

Wolters was hit freely by the White Stockings, but the hits were scattered, and when one of the white geared gents did get on, long Charley Mills kept them glued to the sacks until the entire side was retired. Burns played in a few games after the 23rd of July, but never was able to induce his battery partner to play up close for him. He quit Chicago, returning to his home in New Haven, Conn. There he brooded over what he termed Craver's "turn down" until his reason deserted him, and he was placed in the state hospital for the insane at Middletown. He remained there until about fifteen years ago, when the angel of death relieved him of the call: "Bill, why don't you come up and play them close?" Craver driftd from one club to another around the circuit until 1885, when, with Devlin and Hall, he was banished from organized baseball at Louisville for throwing games in the interest of a corterie of Blue Grass professional gamblers. Ed Wolters of the Mutuals, one year later, was killed at Cleveland in a street car accident, and long Charley Mills was retired by the Umpire of the Universe two years following, after a prolonged siege with tuberculosis.

For a number of years following this game shut-out contests were as frequent as they are at this day, and when a team "enjoyed" the sensation of the white wash, it was referred to as being "Chicagoed," "goose-egged," etc. In the circuit that year besides the teams before mentioned were the Haymakers, Troy, N. Y.; Athletics, Philadelphia; Atlantics, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Red Stockings, Cincinnati; Forest City, Cleveland, and Forest City, Rockford, Ill. With the latter team that year was Adrian Constance (Cap) Anson, in his first professional berth, and Al. G. Spalding, the senior member of Spalding Bros., sporting goods manufacturers. The Cincinnati Red Stockings were the champions, having gone through the season of 1869 without a defeat. Their record in 1870 was almost the reverse of that of the year previous, winning but one or two games, and the fans of Porkopolis tiring of them, the team in 1871, was transferred to Boston, where they were for several seasons again champions.

The scenes of the first whitewash game have for years been wiped out of existence, the march of the commercial greatness of the Union Stock Yards transforming the once beautiful Dexter park into a vast area of cattle and hog pens, runways, chutes, etc. In its day, beside housing the White Stockings, Dexter park was the scene of many grand sporting events. Here the grand old champion Dexter munched oats and dazzled the public with his speed trials. Likewise Cchampagne., Rocky, Joe Predmore, Northern Lights and the great timber topper, Peter Simple, and it was here his popular jockey, Johnny Stiles, set the racing world agog with his feats. It was here in the fall of 1869 and again in the spring of 1870 that Capt. A. H. Bogardus won the international trap shooting championship against Ward, Irvin, Ed Price and others.

It was in and around Dexter park that "Tommy" Gahan was given a try-out as a probationary policeman. Mr. Gahan received his first lessons in politics in the neighborhood of this driving park. And it was in this neighborhood that Tom Gahan afterward accumulated his millions. Tom Gahan was well known in Jacksonville among those politically inclined to follow that simplicity handed down by the "late" Thomas Jefferson, being the Illinois member of the Democratic national committee at the time of his death a few years ago.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.

MICHIGAN U. WINS INTER-COLLEGIATE MEET

CAPTURES SECOND BIG ATHLETIC EVENT AT GRANT PARK.

Maise and Blue Noses Out Southern California by One Point—Kohler of Ann Arbor Captures Winning Point in the Discus.

Chicago, July 2.—University of Michigan athletes won principal honors in the second big athletic event of the Grant Park international games—the intercollegiate meet. Oak Park High school won the interscholastic meet Saturday.

Captain Kohler of the Ann Arbor team, by taking third place in the discus throw, gave the Maise and Blue the point needed to beat southern California for first place, where three firsts by Fred Kelly, the Olympic hero, nearly won for the westerners.

Kohler took first place in the shotput and hammer throw while Haff, the Michigan runner, won a brilliant victory over his two Illinois rivals, Cortis and Hunter. The points: Michigan, 16; Southern California, 15; U. of Chicago, 13; Brigham Young college, 11; Knox, 10; U. of Illinois, 8; Worcester Tech., 8; Oshkosh, 8; Bradley, 5; U. of Wisconsin, 4; Boston Tech, 4; Ohio State, 4; Earlham, 3; Michigan Aggies, 2; Cornell U., 2.

In some of the events there were only two competitors but most of the fields were reasonably large and most of the events were hotly contested.

Five events of the decathlon were run off, the remainder to be held later this week. Harry Goelitz, the Oak Park High school boy, led with two firsts—winning the 100 meters in 11 2-5 seconds and the 400 meters in 54 seconds. P. J. Nicholon, representing the Missouri Athletic club of St. Louis, was first in the high jump with a leap of 5 feet 9 inches.

A. H. Hutchinon of Chicago won first in the broad jump with 23 feet and C. W. Bachman, representing the Chicago Athletic association, took the shotput with 36 feet 3-4 inch. The other contestant is L. Karimo of the Finnish Athletic club.

An exhibition polo match by members of the sixth artillery was a feature of the afternoon.

SERIOUS ERROR IN JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonvillle Citiens Will Do Well to Profit By the Following.

Many fatal cases of kidney disease have reached an incurable stage because the patient did not understand the symptoms. Even today in Jacksonville there are many residents making the same serious error. They attribute their mysterious aches and pains to overwork, or worry, perhaps, when all the time their rheumatic pains, backache and bladder irregularities are most probably due to weak and ailing kidneys. If you are ill, if your kidneys are out of order, profit by this Jacksonville resident's experience.

Miss Mary Flynn, 830 Beesley avenue, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy and act just as represented. I had sharp pains in the small of my back and also had backache which showed that my kidneys were unnatural. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, I have had none of these troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name — Doan's and take no other.

REV. W. L. DORGAN TO LEAVE BAPTIST CHURCH PASTORATE

Announcement Made At Business Session Wednesday Night That He is to Go October First.

An announcement which came as a surprise was made Wednesday night at the Baptist church when Rev. W. L. Dorgan stated that he expected to sever his personal relation with the church October first. This announcement was made at the quarterly business session held after the regular prayer service. Mr. Dorgan did not go into particulars as to the reason for his action nor did he make known his plans for the future.

Rev. Mr. Dorgan assumed the pastorate of the First Baptist church in December, 1911 and has been accounted a very strong and able minister. His sermons have shown special ability. He came to Jacksonville from Mt. Vernon where the Baptist church completed extensive improvements under his pastorate.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mrs. J. P. Lippincott entertained informally at a sewing Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Martha Capps. Refreshments were served during the afternoon and the hours proved delightful in every way.

The 80th birthday of Mrs. Tribe who is a guest at the home of her son John Tribe on North Prairie street was recently observed. A large numbere of the friends of Mrs. Tribe sent her post cards and other remembrances and the day was one she will long remember. Although so far along in years Mrs. Tribe still takes a very active interest in the affairs of life and is much younger in spirit and mind than many people of fewer years.

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS AT LOCAL GAS PLANT

Changes in Equipment Will Result In Better Service—Company Will Spend Large Sum.

Extensive betterments at the plant of the Jacksonville Railway and Light company are under way and Supt. M B. Meiser said yesterday that they would be completed in four or five months. Entirely new gas making machinery is to be installed at a cost of $20,000 to $25,000 and the contract for this machinery has already been let. The contracting company has agreed to install the new machinery without interferring in any way with the manufacturer of gas and this will make the installation work somewhat slower than would otherwise be true.

The purifiers which are now in service have been used for the past twenty-five years and are not of the best type. Much of the washing and scrubbing machinery will also be new and as the retorts were overhauled only a year or two since when the present plans are carried out the plant will entirely up to date and almost wholly new. Mr. Meiser said yesterday that the change in equipmen would make it possible to manufacturer not only more gas but better gas and he believed the public would be entirely satisfied with the quality. Evidenty Mr. Meiser intends to give Jacksonville the best service possible.

Louis Connors who has been a valued employe of the company for a many of years has been appointed superintendent of the gas department at the plant and under his direction one of the old buildings is now being razed.

FIFTY YEARS AGO.

The Inter-Ocean has a daily extraction from its columns of fifty years ago.

Wednesday's issue contained the following:

The citizens, through a committee consisting of J. Young Scammon, Mark Skinner and Frederick Tuttle, presented Mrs. Governor Yates with a span of fine horses and a carriage to day. William L. Church, county clerk of Cook county, made the presentation address at the executive mansion in Springfield. Mrs. Yates expressed her most grateful thanks. The establishment cost about $2,500 and was taken to the capital over the Chicago & Alton railroad free of charge.

This no doubt was the handsome barrouche and pair of bays which the Yates' brought back from Springfield, when they came home in 1865.

Cannon's market, East State street will be open until noon July 4th, plenty of bananas for your picnic.

WRONG NAME GIVEN.

Grover C. Barrow of Waverly was recently committed to Jacksonville State Hospital of his own volition and will take treatment for Huntington's chorrea. Through an unfortunate error it was stated in the Journal yesterday that Edward Neece uncle of Mr. Barrow had gone to the hospital. The item was used as a result of a confusion of names.

CHICAGO UNION STATION COMPANY ORGANIZED.

Chicago, July 2.—The Union Station company, a $50,000,000 corporation, was incorporated here today by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railroad companies.

The proceedings took place in Judge Baldwin's court under a new law authorizing the formation of union depot companies and limiting the capitalization to $50,000,000.

A committee of the city council is conducting hearings on various plans for the new terminal.

MORTUARY

Campbell.

Funeral services for David Campbell were held at the Baptist church at Literberry Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. It is a noteworthy fact that the funeral was held in the church which Mr. Campbell assisted in building. The deceased was an expert carpenter and his last contract at Literberry was for a mortuary at the Literberry cemetery but ill health prevented him from completing it. The services were impressively conducted by Rev. Hy S. Alkire, pastor of Brooklyn M. E. church of this city. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. John Daniels, Mrs. James McFillen, J. S. Hitchens and J. A. Liter and the many beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. J. E. Underbrink and Mrs. K. M. Liter.

Interment was made in the Literberry cemetery and the bearers were: James McFillen, Austin Beavers, Willard Young, James Liter, J. T. Liter and S. H. Crum.

Among those from this city who attended the services were: J. R. Watt, Jerry Cox, John Samples,, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevenson and Newton Long. Others from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Jones of Mt. Sterling, Mrs. Jones being a sister of the deceased; Peter Campbell, a brother of the deceased, and Lisle Campbell, a nephew, of Rushville Moses Hawkins of Camden and Mr. and Mrs. Hermitage of Rushville.

Seymour.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Seymour, of the Durbin neighborhood, who underwent an operation at Passavant hospital for cancer, died Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rawlings and was born near Franklin, July 26, 1849. Her marriage to James P. Seymour took place in 1870 and he died four years ago.

She is survived by her mother and eight children, Mrs. Nellie E. Morris, Mrs. Sallie F. Fanning, Mrs. Pearl L. Birdsell, James R., George W., C. Arthur, Parker of Durbin and Mrs. Ethel Crouse of Murrayville. John H., precedes the mother in death. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. William Mortimer of Woodson and three brothers, James E. Rawlings, east of the city, John H., of Franklin and Robert S., of Woodson.

Mrs. Seymour was a woman of kindly disposition and beloved by all who knew her. Throughout her illness she evidenced a brave heart and was uncomplaining in spirit. She was a member of the Methodist church at Durbin.

The remains were taken to the undertaking parlors of Williamson and Cody, where they were prepared for burial and yesterday afternoon were sent to her former home. The funeral services will be conducted from the Providence M. E. church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of Rev. Mr. Kittle. Interment will be made in the Providence cemetery.

McKee.

Mrs. Libbie McKee of Springfield, who was an attendant at the Jacksonville State hospital for seventeen years, died at the hospital Tuesday night at 11:20 o'clock from pneumonia. In the point of service she has probably served as an attendant more consecutive years than any other employe. Ten years ago while getting off a street car near the hospital gate, she fell in such a manner that she had to give up her position and went back to Springfield to make her home with her nephew, Thomas Strong of 1172 North Third street. Last August Miss McKee suffered a mental breakdown and knowing Dr. H. B. Carriel at the institution she expressed a desire to come here for treatment, which she did. Up till three weeks ago she was improving when she contracted pneumonia.

Miss McKee was born in Carlinville, 57 years ago. She was a member of the First Baptist church of this city, while a resident here.

The body was taken to the O'Daniell undertaking establishment where it was prepared for burial. Thomas Strong, her nephew came to the city last night and accompanied the remains home. The funeral will be Friday afternoon.

Thursby.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thursby died at the home of her parents near Palmyra Sunday morning at 4:30, aged six months, 26 days.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence Monday morning at 7:30 in charge of Rev. C. L. Bell of that place in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends after which the remains were taken to Franklin, brief services being conducted at the grave and interment made in the Franklin cemetery.

Brown.

Peter A. Brown, aged 73 years, a well known resident of Carrollton, died Tuesday morning. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Erbeck of Chicago, Mrs. David Pierson of Carrollton, W. A. Brown and Lee Brown of Carrollton.

Jacksonville Driving club will give matinee of six races July 4. Jeffries band will play.

HOPPE INJURED BY CANNON EXPLOSION.

San Francisco, July 2.—Willie Hoppe, at one time picked by Ad Wolgast to be the next light-weight champion, lost both thumbs and the index fingers of both hands today by the explosion of a toy cannon which he was helping a small boy to load.

CABINET WORKERS QUIT.

Chicago, July 2.—Their three year contract with the employers having expired, 1,500 cabinet workers quit their jobs today. The men have received 36 cents an hour but now demand 40 cents, while the employers are willing to pay but 38 cents.

MARRIAGE SERVICE TO BE SAID AT EARLY MORNING HOUR

Albert H. Knollenberg and Miss Moulton Will Wed This Morning —To Take Southern Journey.

The secret leaked out last night that an early marriage service will be performed in Jacksonville this morning and that the principals will be Mr. Albert Knollenberg and Miss Maude Moulton. The ceremony is to be performed at five o'clock this morning at the residence of H. H. Knollenberg on South Main street by Rev. H. S. Alkire, pastor of Brooklyn M. E. church and the young people will leave on the six o'clock train for a southern trip. While Mr. Knollenberg has not made public his plans it is understood that he may locate in Texas where he has an excellent business opening.

Mr. Knollenberg is the youngest son of Henry H. Knollenberg and has had a very successful career as a young Jacksonville merchant. Miss Moulton has been a resident of Jacksonville for a number of years and is favorably known by a large circle of friends.

SAMUEL E. KNIGHT WAS PIONEER RAILROAD ENGINEER

Brother of Mrs. J. A. Crum of This City Who Died Recently, Ran First Engine Into Atlanta After Sherman's March to the Sea.

Active engagement in railroad work for a term of forty-one years, a veteran of the civil war, and having the honor of running the first train into Atlanta after Sherman had made his march to the sea, was the record of Samuel Esek Knight, brother of Mrs. J. A. Crum of this city, mention of whose death at his home in Charleston, was made in the Journal recently.

Mr. Knight was born in Wilmington, February 12, 1843, a son of Samuel and Elizabeth Knight, and in 1854 he moved with his parents to Quincy, Ill., making the trip via the Erie canal. In 1878 he moved to Galesburg, where he resided until he moved to Charleston twenty three years ago. Mr. Knight was in the service of the C. B. & Q. railroad for twenty six years, and also employed as engineer on the Clover Leaf road for twelve years, and later foreman of the shops of the O. K. Road in Quincy for three years.

Mr. Knight was one of the first to answer the call of President Lincoln for troops and became a member of the Tenth Illinois Infantry. After serving the time of his enlistment he was placed at Lexington, Ky., where he had charge of the provisions of the Northern Army, and during his few months life there was in many adventures and had many narrow escapes from Morgan. The deceased had the honor of being the engineer of the first engine which entered the city of Atlanta after Sherman had made his march to the sea and it was a permission to take the train across the southern state at that time was an honor sought by all.

Another event of which Mr. Knight was more proud of, was the honor of installing the first mining engine in Denver and the state of Colorado. The deceased had been an invalid for two years, but prior to that time always took an active interest in the work of the Charlestton G. A. R. Post, of which he was a member.

IOWA WOMAN SUICIDES.

Mount Pleasant, Ia., July 2.—After saturating her clothing with gasoline and applying a match, Miss Mary Wiggins, aged 46, and prominently connected, ran into the yard of her home a mass of flames this afternoon. Neighbors rushed to her assistance but she was so badly burned that physicians said she would die. The act is supposed to have been the result of temporary mental derangement caused by the recent death of a favorite nephew.

Today is Fiftieth Anniversary of Battle From Which Picture Was Painted—Exhibited in Journal Window.

Through the courtesy of Captain Alexander Smith, of West State street, the Journal has exhibited in its window a reproduction of the famous painting by James Walker of the repulse of Longstreet's assault by Pickett's charge at the battle of Gettysburg, July 3, 1863, just fifty years ago today. A chart, furnishing a key to the picture, is also exhibited in the window.

This picture is a reproduction of the painting purchased by act of congress, January 4, 1904, at a cost of $100,000. The painting, which is twenty feet long and seven and one-half feet high, cost $50,000 and eight years to produce. The survey of the battlefield was begun for this painting within 48 hours after the battle by Col. Bachelder, the historian and military topographer of the United States government. One thousand officers, including the 47 generals who were in this battle, met the artist on the battlefield and arranged the details of the picture and the whole battlefield, which is five miles square, is shown in complete detail. The chart, furnishing a key to the painting, gives the location of the regiments that participated in the battle, and also the names and headquarters of the officers which took part.

Captain Smith received the picture Wednesday from the Lincoln-Gettysburg Memorial association, of which he is a charter member. Each charter member of the association was given a picture.
